

What's on your table?

Buy fresh. Buy local.

GREENSBORO FARMERS' CURB MARKET

501 Yanceyville Street

(near downtown across from the old War Memorial Baseball Stadium)

What's in now

apples . tomatoes . hydroponic lettuce . herbs . bell peppers . corn . okra hot peppers . field peas . cucumbers . squash . garlic . butter beans . onions cantaloupe . watermelon . potatoes . green beans . grapes . eggplant
October beans . blueberries . peaches . butternut squash . turnip greens (Organic selections available)

beef . chicken . pork . country ham . sausage . breads . cakes . pies eggs . honey . milk . goat cheese . ice cream . Greek & Lebanese foods cut flowers . annuals & perennials . herb & vegetable plants arts & crafts

Coming Up...

NEW!

Fall Harvest & Farmers Appreciation Day
Greensboro Coliseum Pavilion

Saturday, October 11: 7 am-3 pm

Join us to salute the local farmer! A southern breakfast will be available, exhibitors will be on hand, and the fine vendors from our Market will be selling their fresh produce, home-baked goods and hand-made crafts. Free parking and admission.

Triad Area Fall Pottery Festival

Sunday, October 19: 11 am-5 pm

Discover the richness of local pottery. More than 70 potters will be featured. Parking and admission is free.

Hours

Saturdays, 6 am-12 noon – All Year!

Wednesdays, 7 am-1 pm

336.373.2402 www.greensboro-nc.gov/leisure

A facility of the Greensboro Parks & Recreation Department

